Continuing professional development plays a truly crucial role when it comes to maintaining a leading position in any given industry or market. Professional stagnation leads to stagnant growth, with one directly feeding into the other. Equally, it pays to be trained and consulted by experts in their field – and that is where the Management Consultancy Awards found its start. In recognising the true leaders in an industry which can absolutely make or break companies. For its inaugural year, the Management Consultancy Awards looked to recognise those that truly go above and beyond to deliver best in class consultancy solutions and services to their clients and partners.

Awards Coordinator Holly Blackwood took a moment to comment on the success of the winners on the eve of the announcement. “Wealth & Finance International Magazine is proud to be able to showcase the selection of the best of the best from across the industry. I would like to take this opportunity to offer everyone my sincere congratulations and best wishes for the future. I hope you all have a fantastic rest of 2022 ahead.”
